1 You must be a member of the Brown County community

Generally, members must live, work, or own property in Brown County, Indiana to be included as a member on this page. Sorry for any inconvenience. The intent is to keep the group focused on issues that directly effect local/county residents.

2 Be Civil, Constructive, Respectful

Differences in opinion are expected and provide an opportunity for learning. The relatively few individuals that repeatedly post without adding constructively to the conversation will be removed.

3 Please do not use the f-word and other profanity.

We have a wide range of individuals in the group and what may be typical conversation for some is offensive and concerning to others.

4 Private enterprise related posts prohibited

There are other sites that promote, market, or support inquiries about Brown County businesses to include allowing for feedback. Sites: - Brown County Local Services Director; TIBC Trading Post.

5 Only non-profits are allowed to advertise.

No personal items are to be sold on this page. TIBC is a local page for the marketing of items.

6 Social, Political, Cultural Topics

Limited to specific county issues, elections and candidates. We want to avoid the social, political, and cultural topics that can be divisive, contribute to the polarity in the country "and" are discussed extensively and passionately on other sites.

7 No personal attacks- either directly or indirectly

Includes name calling, insults, allegations. Could also include complaints against a business, an attack on a group that an individual (s) may be associated with - a political party for example. Please focus on the "message" and not the messenger.

8 Threats, Allegations, Crimes

Reports and allegations of criminal activity within the county should be reported to the Sherriff. Allegations & threats using social media can be considered a felony, defamation, or libel.
